

San Francisco Giants vs. Florida Marlins

August 24, 2003

Giants fans enjoy a beautiful Bay Area morning at the Traffic Safety Fair on Sunday, August 24, 2003 as they meet representatives from the Office of Traffic Safety, California Highway Patrol, San Francisco Police and Fire Departments and the California State Automobile Association.

Janet Lane and Marilyn Sabin help anxious fans to complete the OTS scratcher ticket quiz and win a glow-in-the-dark necklace or writing pen.

Larry helps pass out bags of OTS goodies and hand-held fans to help the crowd keep their cool in the hot summer sun!

Marilyn Sabin and the Crash Test Dummies give a thumbs-up for their favorite team, the San Francisco Giants!

The California Highway Patrol helicopter lands on field at Pac Bell Park for a special Traffic Safety Ceremony before the game.

The Crash Test Dummies participate in the Giants Traffic Safety Ceremony reminding fans to always wear a seat belt and drive home safely after the game.
